Why do you want to volunteer?

Read the passage to summarize the reasons.

Volunteering is an act of kindness. By providing help to people in need, volunteers can make a great difference to the lives of those receiving it, helping them to overcome difficulties and move forward. Moreover, volunteering benefits (有利于) the society as a whole. Because it brings people closer, creates a sense of belonging(归属感) and changes many other fields of the world.

What about the volunteers themselves? Well, they have the chance to make new friends, increase confidence, improve social skills and get work experience that can pay off later in life. And studies also show that volunteering is good for both the body and mental health. Helping others is a wonderful way for people to experience joy and fulfillment(成就感). You can't imagine the strong feelings of satisfaction volunteers have!

So time to get started! If you make up your mind to volunteer, you are on the way of making a difference.

【Sample】

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am Li Hua, a student from Huaxing Middle School in Chengdu. Learning that you need volunteers for the World Games, I'm writing to apply(申请) to be a guide.

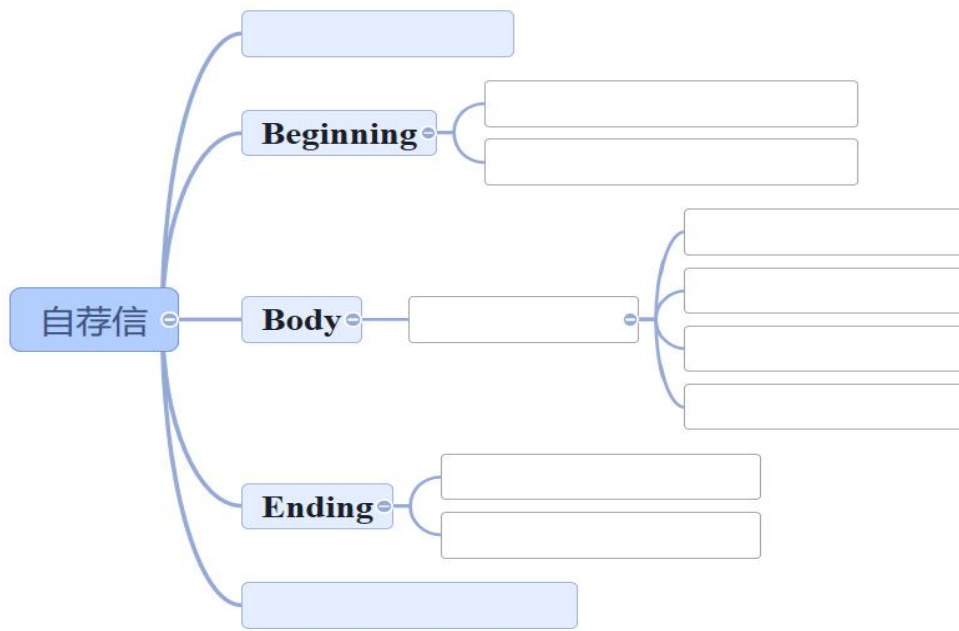

I think I'm suitable for the role. On the one hand, I'm quite outgoing, friendly and can speak English fluently. That makes it easy for me to talk with others, especially foreigners. On the other hand, I'm a sports lover and a quicker learner so I have the ability as well as confidence to provide the best service for the players and visitors. In addition, I have much free time during the summer vacation.

Volunteering is a good way to give back to society and I can help others and improve myself at the same time. So I hope you can consider my application and give me a chance to join in this event. Looking forward to your reply. Thank you!

Sincerely,
Li Hua
