2.1 Problems about schoolwork: a call from Alice

Fill in the blanks with so that, until, although. (M: Michelle, A: Alice)

M: Hello, School Counselor's Office speaking.

A: Hello, school counselor, this is Alice from Grade 8.

M: Hi, Alice, this is Michelle. Any problems?

A: My problem is that I am having too much pressure about my schoolwork!

M: Tell me more about it.

A: I have to study all the time _____ I can get good grades in the exams. I give up my hobbies and free time activities, and sometimes I even do not fall asleep (睡着) _____ midnight just because I'm worried about my grades.

M: Oh, I'm sorry to hear that.

A: And I can't help comparing my grades with my classmates', _____ I know I shouldn't compete with them.

M: That's not OK.

A: Hey, Michelle, I need to go back to my class now...

M: Alright, I'll call you back after class.

A: Thank you, bye.

M: Bye.

2.2 Giving advice by should(n't), Why don't you ... ?

Life _____ just be about grades. Free time activities like hanging out with friends are important, too. They can help you relax. You won't get good grades if you're stressed out all the time.

Why don't you _____ your homework earlier and go to sleep earlier tonight?

Why don't you _____ yourself? In my opinion, you're such an excellent student that studies hard at school and develops well in life.

You _____ compete with your classmates to get better grades. Instead, you _____ help each other to improve.

3.1 Problems about family: a letter from Sad and Thirteen

Dear Michelle,

My problem is that I can't get on with my family.

Relations between my parents are difficult. They fight a lot, and it's the only communication they have. When they argue, it's like a big, black cloud hanging over our home.

Also, my elder sister isn't very nice to me. I found her looking through my things without asking and borrowing my iPad without returning. I am very angry with her!

I feel lonely and nervous at home. Is that normal? What can I do?

Sad and Thirteen

Fill in the table.

Sad and Thirteen's problems about family	Who	What	How he/she feels parents	_____ a lot, the only _____ they have	be like a big, black _____ hanging over our home	feel lonely and _____ _____ sister	look through things _____ asking borrow the iPad without _____	be angry with her

3.2 Giving advice by should, could, Why don't you ... ? Why not ... ? You'd better ...

Dear Sad and Thirteen,

It's not easy being your age, and it's normal to have these feelings. 1. 你为什么不和你的家人谈谈呢?

If your parents are having problems, 2. 你应该主动提供帮助。3. 也许你可以做更多家务劳动 so that they have more time for proper communication.

Secondly, 4. 你最好坐下和你姐姐沟通一下。5. 为什么不像这样解释一下呢? You don't mind her borrowing your iPad. However, she should ask you first and return it on time.

I hope you will get on with your family soon.
