Fondness:

Today I happen to visit this excellent noodle house--Terri's Noodle House. It's well decorated (装修). The tables are set neatly (整洁地) with a beautiful pink flower on the table top. The lights are warm, which makes me feel quite welcome. But what surprises me the most is the food there.

You can order many different kinds of noodles from the menu. All of them look so delicious from the pictures above. I have beef and tomato noodles today. The beef is quite succulent (鲜美多汁的) while the tomatoes are very fresh and juicy (多汁的). What's more, they even serve the customers with free apple juice! It's such a joy to have it on a hot summer day!

If you like noodles a lot, I highly recommend (##) this noodle house!
